MINUTES

Call to Order: 7:00pm

Attendance: Pat Miller, Rachel Bartolowits, Staci Broad Mauro

Approval of October Minutes: Approved

Reports & Announcements:

Received official resignation from Board Member Kelly Cook, we appreciate her service.

Park Assessments: All parks have been reviewed and some maintenance and upkeep was done, Blevins will in particular be freshened up prior to the November 11 Veterans Day event that will be held there.

Old Business:

New Business:

New applicant for Parks: AJ Quinones. We will recommend to the council that he is approved to join!

There is a chapter in the ordinances called chapter 49, Parks and Recreation. In a twelve month period, three total absences is considered forfeiture of the spot on the board. The term of each members appointment on the board is two years. All current members need to re-apply and will submit updated applications this month.

Pier is going to be replaced with Trex-like composite material.

New subdivision is coming at Number Two road. Will bring in impact fees. We need to be thinking about how those monies may be used to improve the town from a parks and recreation perspective. What would most benefit the town?

Sara Maude potential parking situation recommendation

Line dancing events- in talks with an instructor.

Making a beach park. Could be a public park or could be private access like the dock?
